Cate Gasco has been a choral music educator for over a decade and is currently in her fifth year as the Upper School Choral Director at St. Andrew's Episcopal School in Austin, TX. Originally from Philadelphia, PA, Cate was a choir enthusiast from a young age. In high school, her musical endeavors ranged from starring in musical theatre productions and singing in the All-State Choir to recording a pop acoustic album of original music and contributing vocals to multiple other artists' albums. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Duquesne University with a Bachelor of Science in Music Education. While at Duquesne, she studied with renowned vocalists Claudia Pinza and Maureen Budway and sang with the Voices of Spirit. She has participated in postgraduate choral conducting symposiums at the University of Michigan under the direction of Dr. Jerry Blackstone, Dr. Dan Bara, and Dr. Eugene Rogers, and has completed vocal pedagogy courses at the Eastman School of Music.

After moving to Texas in 2012, Cate served as the Head Choir Director at James Bowie High School in Austin, TX, for five years, during which her choirs consistently received Sweepstakes at UIL. Singers in Cate's choirs have earned spots in both the TMEA and TPSMEA All-State Choirs and have received Superior ratings at UIL and TPSMEA Region and State Solo and Ensemble Contests.

Cate sings with Pasi3n, a Rio Grande Valley based professional chorus that was recently invited to perform at the 2021 TCDA Convention and was a National Finalist for The American Prize in Choral Performance. Apart from choir, Cate is very involved in musical theatre and is a three-time recipient of the GAHSMTA Best Musical Direction Award. She is also a National Board Certified Teacher, National School Reform Faculty Critical Friends Group Certified Coach, and serves St. Andrew's on the Student Leadership Committee and as a 9th grade academic advisor. Her professional affiliations include TMEA, TPSMEA, TCDA, ACDA, Mu Phi Epsilon and Pi Kappa Lambda. She currently lives in the Texas Hill Country with her husband, John, and their children Olivia and Arbor.

Deidre Douglas has been a choral educator for over thirty years and is presently in her seventeenth year at Cypress Falls High School. She began her teaching career with seventeen years in middle school choir. Thirteen years were at Labay Middle School and the remaining four at Aragon and Arnold middle schools. While at Labay, her advanced girls were selected to perform at the 1995 Texas Music Educators Association Convention, and in 2012, her Varsity Men's Choir at Cypress Falls High School received the same honor. In 2015, Mrs. Douglas had the honor of her Varsity Women's Choir being selected to perform at the TMEA convention as well as the National American Choral Directors Association Convention. In 2018, her A cappella Choir was honored to sing and represent Cypress Falls High School at TMEA. During her time at Labay Middle School, Mrs. Douglas was named "Spotlight Teacher" and later received the same honor at Cypress Falls High School.

Deidre attended Stephen F. Austin State University. She graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a Master of Arts degree. She was named the Presser Scholar and the Lenvill Martin Outstanding Music Graduate. In 2008, she received the prestigious honor of being named Outstanding Music Alumna. In 2017, she received the Choral Excellence Award from the Texas Choral Directors' Association.

Mrs. Douglas' choirs have received numerous sweepstakes ratings in UIL Contest and Sight-reading, Best in Class, and Outstanding Performance at festivals. Her students have consistently earned membership in District, Region, and All-State Choirs. She has served on the Prescribed Music List committee and the choral textbook committee for Hal Leonard/Glencoe, including serving as one of the contributing authors.

Deidre is a frequent adjudicator, clinician and soloist throughout Texas and the surrounding states. Her professional affiliations include TMEA, TCDA, TMAA, ACDA, Mu Phi Epsilon, Alpha Chi and Pi Kappa Lambda. She is married to her wonderful husband, BJ. They have two daughters, Rebekah and Leah, and two granddogs.
